

Prayer Prompts for Kids

Find a time every day to say these prayers alongside your kids. Consider putting “prayer time” on your family calendar, or adding it into your children’s bedtime routine. If your kids are old enough, have them read the prayers for themselves, or you can read them out loud and have your children repeat them. If your kids are too young to speak, you can pray these over them.

Monday

God, thank you for the weekend we just had and for the week that is to come. Help me to love and obey You every day by reading Your Word and praying with my family. Amen.

Tuesday

God, thank you for the family and friends you have put in my life that help me laugh, learn, and love. Help me to be a good friend always, and please provide friends in my life that will love me well all of my days. Amen.

Wednesday

Lord, thank you for the world you created and the mind you gave me to understand the world. Teach me something new every day about your creation and who You are, and help me to love learning always. Amen.

Thursday

God, thank you for being kind, loving, patient, and good. Please make me more like you every day, and help me to understand how big and great your love is for me. Amen.

Friday

God, when I wake up and go to sleep, I know that you are always with me. Protect me from harm and things that are not good for me, and help me to trust that you will always take care of me. Amen.
